

Free Taster
Creative Writing
Travel Writing Workshop
St. Edward's Arts and Community Hall
Penylan

(10.30am -11.30am Friday 20th September)

Reading and Travel Writing Course

10.30 – 12.30 Friday 20th September – 6th December 2018

10 weeks course £135 (concessions £115)

Come along and join us for a morning exploring travel writing. During the course the group will discuss examples of travel writing, followed by creative writing workshops that will enable you to develop new pieces of work and discover your own voice in this genre. New pieces will be shared with the group in an enjoyable and informal atmosphere.

The course is led by Claire Syder, an experienced Creative Writing tutor. She has previously worked for the University of South Wales, University Wales, Bangor and the Worker's Education Association. Claire is a published poet and has read her work in New York and at various venues throughout England, Ireland and Wales. Her work has appeared in many anthologies, and a collection of poetry 'Time Cracks Open the Universe,' has been published by Stonebridge. Her latest Travel poetry collection 'Behind the Solid Stone Wall' was published in 2016.

For more information or to book a place on a course contact clairesyder@yahoo.co.uk
07810435403. Web page. Clairesydercreativewriting.co.uk

Free Taster
Creative Writing
Travel Writing Workshop
St. Edward's Arts and Community hall
Penylan

(10.30am -11.30am Friday 20th September)

Reading and Travel Writing Course

10.30 – 12.30 Friday 20th September – 6th December 2018

10 weeks course £135 (concessions £115)

Come along and join us for a morning exploring travel writing. During the course the group will discuss examples of travel writing, followed by creative writing workshops that will enable you to develop new pieces of work and discover your own voice in this genre. New pieces of work will be shared with the group in an enjoyable and informal atmosphere.

The course is led by Claire Syder, an experienced Creative Writing tutor. She has previously worked for the University of South Wales, University Wales, Bangor and the Worker's Education Association. Claire is a published poet and has read her work in New York and at various venues throughout England, Ireland and Wales. Her work has appeared in many anthologies, and a collection of poetry 'Time Cracks Open the Universe,' has been published by Stonebridge. Her latest Travel poetry collection 'Behind the Solid Stone Wall' was published in 2016.

For more information or to book a place on a course contact clairesyder@yahoo.co.uk
07810435403. Web page. Clairesydercreativewriting.co.uk